Parent Comments

Thank you

My daughter skips into school each day and counts down the holidays as she can't wait to come back! She loves learning, the topics interest her and she is supported academically and emotionally. She feels special and all staff members make her feel valued. Thank you 😊

We are delighted at how our child has settled in and loves King Edwin, we are constantly updated and able to track his progress online!!

My little girl can be shy and lack confidence. The teachers throughout the school have been amazing and she's really shining. Mr C-W is always around welcoming everyone making us feel confident and supported. Everyone at KEPS is very approachable, absolutely fantastic school

Always loved King Edwin I went there as a child myself but I have to say I did have concerns a few years ago which I did voice and they fell on deaf ears to the head teacher at the time HOWEVER Now Mr. Cow has taken over the staff are very happy and the whole school is just absolutely fantastic King Edwin have an amazing team and they have found a fantastic leader in me CW my children are so happy! Huge respect for the staff for all their hard work I honestly love this school as do my children well done KEPS you are all legends x

The excitement and smile on my daughters face every morning when walking into school shows me that she is enjoying and developing amazingly during school. All members of staff from across the school are so supportive and encouraging

KEPS is a wonderful caring, welcoming

The range of after-school clubs continues to get better and better giving my daughter a chance to try new things and have fantastic experiences (i.e. Young Voices)

The range of after school clubs is wonderful however it is very difficult for working parents to book on to them. As it is a first come first serves releasing them during the school day means not all parents can get onto the gateway at these times due to work commitments. If you released them in an evening it would be easier for all parents to access them.

After school club sign up is not easily accessible for working parents, the gateway for sign up should be released in an evening when it is most accessible by everyone, not a select few

Love the school. Staff are passionate and inspiring in all that they do. They set a good example in being the best that they can be and this role models for the children.

Fabulous leadership. Happy staff and children, therefore happy parents. It is a joy that my child attends King Edwin

My child had only been at King Edwin for a short amount of time but I have been incredibly impressed with the School so far.

The staff are fantastic and fully support both my children in their development. The head master is a breath of fresh air to KEPS.

We have experienced an extremely positive transition from nursery to reception class which has helped to allow a measured approach to full day schooling which is a big step for small children the teachers are caring and very supportive to both children and their carers to develop and prepare them for the next stage.

Fantastic school, KEPS just keeps growing and growing offering our children the best opportunities in all areas

Aside from parent's evenings, there doesn't seem to be regular information about how my child is doing, though if I were concerned, I do know that I could speak to their class teacher. It would perhaps be nice to get messages via the gateway about personal achievements.

Such a lovely school environment, wonderful teachers. Great communication! Love the high five values and what they stand for. Come on so much the last two years, we are very lucky to have a wonderful place for our son to learn. Thank you!

Absolutely love this school my children are thriving and makes me very happy as a mother to see this Fantastic head, teachers and assistants. Pupils are offered a wide range of activities clubs and opportunities. I'd highly recommend it to everyone

George is so happy at KEPS and is excited to attend every single day. The communication from the school is now excellent and the after school clubs on offer are great. Well done KEPS

KEPS is such a lovely school. You can just see how much Mr. CW loves the school, the teachers are all amazing and it's evident on how much they care. My eldest is now at secondary, but the teachers always ask how he is getting on. It feels like a little community, this is my last child's year at keeps and I will miss the school.

The encouragement and motivation of pupils to be the best they can be is second to none. All staff are unbelievably committed. There is a perfect blend of competition and compassion which means students strive for greatness without fearing failure.

Being a military family, my children always found new schools daunting. Though my daughter has never settled as quickly or happily as she did with KEPS. The teachers are wonderful and the introduction of the high five values by the HeadTeacher has really inspired the children and it shows in their attitude and behavior. My youngest is in Preschool at KEPS and she loves it and has taken really well to school. Awesome school. Great activities, great supportive environment.

We feel so lucky to have our children in a school where all the staff are fantastic, and led brilliantly. The staff set good examples by striving to better themselves. I feel that my daughters are supported and challenged in their academic abilities, and supported socially and emotionally.

Fantastic school, my child has been attending for a month now and she loves it. She tells me it is a nice friendly school.

King Edwin is a fantastic school and both of my child love going to school - this speaks volumes for me. The staff are brilliant - caring, considerate, passionate about the school and the children and they work so hard. They are a huge part of the community and instill the school values into the children, with sincere pride. We feel very lucky to be a part of the KEPS family and feel our children are getting the very best start to their school life and education. Thank you KEPS, this is down to every single one of you. You're doing a fabulous job. King Edwin Primary school is a fantastic school. The teachers are brilliant and make my child feel so welcome, happy and safe. The head teacher is also very friendly and approachable. I'm very happy that my child goes to this school and hopefully will get a place for my other child.
