Year 1 Edwardian Seaside Experience

Dear Parents and Carers,

On Thursday 17th June we will be having an Edwardian Seaside Day as an introduction to our new topic 'What is it like to be beside the seaside?'

During the topic we will be researching the history of the seaside, traditions that date from past and how the seaside has changed over the past hundred years. On Thursday 17th June we will be welcoming 'Partake History' into school, who will run Edwardian seaside themed workshops with the children involving role play, costumes and drama. There is a voluntary donation of £4:50 per child to cover the cost of the themed day and payment can be made via the School Gateway.

Later in the half term we will also be having a modern day seaside themed experience in school, when children will get the opportunity to take part in another special day that will be great fun! More information about this will be shared nearer the time.

We hope the children are looking forward to it as much as we are!

Year One Team.
