Dear Parents / Carers,

Every Friday, we love to celebrate each and every one of our KingEdWINNERS achievements and one of those is in relation to reading (reader of the week.) We have invested in such an amazing King Edwin vending machine, enriched with fantastic books to broaden and enhance the love of reading throughout school. However, when children are choosing a book, it appears that they are not being returned to school once read. Therefore, I would like to put out a reminder to please ensure your child returns their book once they have finished. Unfortunately, the vending machine is looking a little empty recently and we want to make sure that our KindEdWINNERS have the opportunity to have a variety of books to choose from. I hope to see books being returned to school so we can fill our vending machine back up again!

Thank you for always being understanding and supportive.

Yours sincerely,

Miss M Hands
