Story Telling Week 30th- 6th February 2023

National Storytelling Week is a seven-day-long celebration of storytelling in all its forms, from books and blockbuster movies to theatre and comic strips.

The week is championed by the Society for Storytelling, which is an organisation founded to promote storytelling and provide people with information about storytelling events, advice on using storytelling and using your voice as a storyteller.

In this time, as a teacher, parent or carer, we can educate our children on what storytelling is whilst encouraging them to tell their own tales.

With this in mind; we would like to ask our KingEdwinner families to share photographs and videos of you sharing stories together. Please post them on our social media pages or email them to your child's teacher.

The children will be engaging in various storytelling activities throughout the week and different teachers will be reading stories at the end of the day.

Happy storytelling!
