Friday 17th April 2026

Dear Parents and Carers ,

I am writing to share some news with you as, after many wonderful years at King Edwin, we are sadly beginning to prepare ourselves to say goodbye (for now) to Mrs Merrygold. Her last day at King Edwin will be Friday 22nd May. I am sure many parents and KingEdwinner children will want to see her before she moves on.

Naturally, saying goodbye to such a treasured member of our team is never easy. Mrs Merrygold has made an exceptional contribution to KEPS over the years and is a much-loved figure within our school community. She is particularly well known for her inspirational work in the arts, where her passion, creativity and dedication have touched the lives of so many of our KingEdwinners. This is an area of expertise we value enormously, and we very much hope that Mrs Merrygold will return in the future to continue inspiring our brilliant young artists.

In terms of continuity for the children in Maid Marion Class , I am pleased to reassure you that we have made strong and thoughtful arrangements. We are delighted to confirm that Miss Farrow will be covering the class alongside Mrs Grant. Miss Farrow is already a familiar face, working in school several days a week, and she knows the children, staff and routines very well. She is an experienced and valued member of our team, and we are confident that together they will provide the children with consistency, care and high-quality provision.

Once again, we would like to thank Mrs Merrygold sincerely for her many years of dedication, commitment and love for our school. She will be greatly missed, but we send her off with our very best wishes, and enormous thanks for everything she has given to the KEPS community.

Kind regards,

Andy Callaghan-Wetton - Headteacher
